TRIBUTE TO WANDA

Like silver wings at the dawning Flying swiftly through skies of blue, Life's brief journey ceased
one bright morning.
Leaving memories blessed and true.

Like unto a golden light In radiance safe and sweet did blend
Her loveliness with memory bright
Will guide the pathway of her friends.

Like soft gentle winds
of the evening
Into paths so strangely sweet Went her steps from earth
to heaven
Her precious Master to meet.

—Hazel Rapp

In Memoriam

The Senior Class of 1963 dedicates this issue of THE EAGLE in the memory of our beloved classmate, Wanda Louise Coy, who passed away February 12, 1961, during her Sophomore year.

An inspiration and joy to those who knew her, Wanda continues to live in our memory as a pretty, brown-haired, fun-loving girl. Her smile helped to make our days brighter and our tasks to seem lighter.

Throughout her illness she never gave in to despair, but held on to the joy of living with faith and courage. May we Seniors face our future with such courage.

So, to the memory of one who has preceded us in that great adventure which all mortals must take, we dedicate The 1963 Eagle.
